WEEKLY

CHAUTAUQUA ECHOES

Serving the Entire Community

VOL. 4 AUG. 5, 1935 NO. 3

POOL APPEAL

INDIAN DANCERS BIG ATTRACTION AT CHAUTAUQUA

Sunday night, the bluffs around Piasa Chautauqua once again resounded with the music and shouts of Indian dances, as they did in the days of old, when the Ouatoga Society of Alton presented a program to a large crowd of residents and guests.

With the society's director, Eckford J. de Kay, introducing and explaining the 10 acts, 20 members presented their program of American Indian dances. An outstanding feature was the famous hoop dance, done with a flaming hoop by the chief of the society, William Norris. Among the dances were the Pueblo Rain Dance and Eagle Dance, Apache Devil Dance, and the finale number, "Pow Wow".

The society, an organization of high school boys and adults interested in Indian Lore, history, costumes, anddancing, gave its 29 th performance of its year and a half of existence.

During an interview, De Kay said sometime in the coming few weeks a new booklet publication entitled "The History of the Piasa Bird" will be available to the Alton area public.

The booklet will contain pictures of the famous bird and information, written earlier as a thesis by John W. Gibbons of Alton.

The booklet, published under the auspices of the society, will be sold for the benefit of the organization.

POOL GIFTS GOOD; BUT MORE NEEDED

Additional donations for the operation of the swimming pool are needed according to C.J. Jacoby, president of Chautauqua.

While the response has been gratifying, Mr. Jacoby pointed out that much more money is needed and those who have not contributed are urged to do so, while those who indicated they would increase their gifts if additional sums were needed are reminded that the entire cost of maintaining the pool and paying the manager and lifeguard must be taken care of without the customary revenue that in the past has come from season ticket sales and individual swim ticket sales. This year, use of the pool is limited to Chautauqua residents and their guests with no admission charged. The pool is closed to outsiders. In other years Chautauqua collectedseveral thousand dollars in swim ticket sales and guest gate admissions from those who came to Chautauqua to swim. The year the expense of operating the pool is as high as ever but revenue is limited entirely to gifts of interested Chautauqua residents.

SUSTITUTION-FATHER AND SON GUARD RESORT

Ed Voumard of Alton, son of Chautauqua's policeman, Pete Voumard, also of Alton, is assuming his fathers duties as watchman on the resorts grounds while the elder Mr. Voumard is taking a vacation for an inderinite period of time.

GIRLS CLUB HOP ENJOYED BY ALL CHAUTAUQUANS

The presentation of an intermission floorshow and of Hawaiian leis to all the guests, added an unusual but colorful flavor to the Girl's Club dance, "Aloha", Saturday eve.

Mary Meisel of University City emceed the floorshow, with Julia Wessel of Richmond Heights dancing a hula; Catherine Kaiser of St. Louis presenting a song and dance routine to "Right in Your Own Backyard"; Carol Kaiser with a song and dance number, "Mobile"; and the two Kaisers together, doing "Mombo Rock". Mrs. Frank Kunk of Lebanon accompanied the last three acts on the piano.

ALTON BAND IS WELL RECEIVED

C.L. Hughes conducted the Alton Municipal Band in his third concert as guest conductor here Saturday evening.

Hughes, band director at the East Alton-Wood River High School, led the band in three other concerts, at Riverview Park in Alton, Jerseyville, and Shurtleff College. Alton Director Joan McCormick was on vacation.

Featured on the program was 14 year old Dale Payne, enjoying his first year as a band member, who gave a cornet solo, Randall's "Song of Jupiter." Numbers, ranging from classical to popular, included: "The Pajama Game," "Colorado", and "Blue Tango". Announcer at the program was Lester H. Parker.

ELM STREET BOWS TO BIRDS

The Chautauqua ball team, the Piasa Birds, defeated the Elm Street Presbyterian Church of Alton at the athletic field, July 30.

As shown by the score of 8 - 2 the visiting team was unable to cope with the quick and decisive fielding and timely hitting of the Chautauqua team. Jerry Robards and Tom Berman were the hitters on the Chautauqua team while Duncan, Bayley, Hayes and Gill led the Alton.

Jim Meyer pitching for Chautauqua struck out three, walked three and let six hits go by. Phil Kardis of Alton, struck out six, walked seven and lost six hits.

The visiting team enjoyed the swimming pool after the game and they, as our boys, are looking forward to a return match.

Runs	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Chautauqua	1	1	0	3	1	2	-
Elm St. Pres.	0	0	0	2	0	0	0

KENTUCKY HOME

good food

good will good luck to

THE ECHO

Do You Remember?

Do you remember when Mr. Fred Smith of Alton had charge of the Laundry for the entire season of 1912?

Do you remember "The Baby Health Contest" sponsored by the L.C.I.A. in 1934?

Do you remember when General Thomas Morfoot had a wonderful lot of saddle ponies?

Do you remember "The Piasaquan" of 1923 published by the Young Men's Club?

GREETINGS from A FRIEND

DR. EVERSULL

We of Chautauqua are very sorry to lose the company of Dr. Eversull who, because of illness in the family, had to cut their visit short. Dr. Eversull was scheduled to speak for the next two Thursday night devotional services. Instead we will have our resident minister, J. Allan Mittler, continue his Thursday night addresses.

MEN INVITED TO CARD PARTY

Tuesday, Aug. 9, the LCIA will hold a card party at the Springs Hotel for both men and women. During the party, members of the Girl Club will sit with younger children at the children's home. The girls are doing this as a project, and would greatly appreciate fifty cent payments for their baby-sitting. The older children will be entertained with movies and games at the station stand.

STAFF

The Chautauqua Echoes, published weekly at the Echoes' offices at Chautauqua, Illinois.
Editorial Board: Sid Hormell, Allen Mittler, Steve Voss, Sy Hotze.
Mechanical Department: Steve Voss, David Jacoby. Circulation: Tom Borman, Steve Schmidt, David DeNuro, Paul Stalder. Advertising: Barbara Rogers. Art Work: Sid Hormell, Sam Schmidt. Typists: Barbara Jacoby, Sy Horze. Reporters: Steve Voss, David DeNuro, Carl Bell, Tom Borman, Sam Schmidt, Steve Schmidt, Ken Schulenberg, Paul Stalder.
Representative of Association Board of Directors: Harold Colbert.

NOTES

Miss Theresa Eglin of Springfield spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rain.

Mr. and Mrs. C.A. Lippole of Alton spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Cichlar.

Mrs. L. Burns and Mrs. Kathryn O'Donald of Grafton were entertained by Mrs. Henry Thomas this past Wednesday.

Major P.C. Reed of Scott Field spent Saturday with Mrs. G. Heilig.

Mr. Frank Heilig and daughter, Mrs. W. Kressgy, and Mrs. G. Scott and son of St. Louis spent Wednesday of last week with Mrs. G. Heilig.

Joyce Graf of St. Louis is spending the week at the Grimms.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Kodros and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rain Sr., and Ronny, and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Voss and family gave a birthday party for Mrs. Otto Cichlar on Wednesday at the Voss' home.

Mr. and Mrs. W.J. Richards and sons Jimmy and Robert from Fayetteville, Arkansas are spending the week with Mr. Newland.

Visiting with Mrs. W.F. Griesedieck of East St. Louis this week is her sister, Mrs. Dean Hickman of Springfield, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Polster and children of St. Louis are spending the month of August at the Flint cottage.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Hurd and family of St. Louis arrived Wednesday to spend the month.

Spending three weeks at Bob-Inn are Mr. and Mrs. R.E. Murray of New Kensington, Pa.

CHILDREN'S DAY IN PREPARATION

Rehearsals have begun for the annual Children's Day pageant, "Fun Around the Calendar", to be presented at the Auditorium Aug. 12.

The various acts, representing each month of the year, are under the direction of playground director, Barbara Rogers of University City.

They include such numbers as a mock wedding for June, Bunny dance for August, Irish Jig for March, senior choir selections for December, and a football skit for November.

The acts will be tied together by Mary Meisel and Carol Rogers of University City, who play the roles of two old Chautauquans reminiscing of their past years at the resort.

NEW MEMBERS

Announcement was made Tuesday that Mrs. Jack Hormell and Mrs. Fred DuHadway of Jerseyville, Mrs. Ken Jacoby and Mrs. A.L. Floss of Alton, Mrs. A.M. Zerweck of Miami, Fla., Mrs. Lynn Schlansker of University City, Mo., have been selected by a nominating committee as candidates for election to the Board of Directors of the LCIA.

At its semi-annual meeting in the auditorium Aug. 9, the new members will be elected to a board consisting of 12 women. Mrs. DuHadway is up for reelection. Preceeding the meeting, there will be a breakfast at the Kentucky Home at 9:30 a.m.

(Advertisement)
THE CHAUTAUQUA STORE
Headquarters for your foor requirements, Fresh fruits, vegetables, frozen foods, staple groceries, meats, etc.

MEYER WINS!

The Shuffleboard Tournament, under the direction of Wm. Niergarth, was held August second and third.

In the final game Jim Meyer defeated Phil Polster by the score of 52 to 38 for the championship.

NOTES

Davy Crockett visited here Monday, but of course, it wasn't the real Davy. Jerry Booth of Decatur vacationed here with his parents, Mr. & Mrs. A.H. Schlotzhauer of Jerseyville, after finishing an engagement of playing the famous frontierman at the opening of a super market in Decatur.

Mrs. Nathalia Gregg of St. Louis entertained her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. George D. Gregg and son, Bruce of St. Louis over the weekend.

CHAPEL ECHOES & NOTES

Sunday morning at 11:00, Lin D. Cartwright will speak to us at the Community Worship Service. Mr. Cartwright is the editor of the Christian Evangelist, the National Weekly publication of the Disciples of Christ.

Because of the Children's Day rehearsals the Junior Choir will not meet next week. Senior Choir will rehearse as announced.

THE OUTSIDER

The whole Gospel story is the story of an outsider--Jesus was born an outsider--"there was no room in the inn"--he lived as an outsider--"the Son of Man hath not where to lay his head"--and at the end he died outside the gate.

It is a parable, the life of Jesus--a parable of how the spirit and principles of Jesus have been crowded out of the affairs of humanity, great issues decided without even mention of his name. It is so today, even as it has been so through all the ages since he lived.

It is also an amazing paradox--here is the one person who shows us most completely what God is like. Yet he lived outside the pale, died outside the city gate. We Worship, but do not obey. God is an outsider--an outcast in his own world.

Here plainly is why the world is what it is. Men piously profess God, but before Him in solemn prayer and ritual word, and then live as if he does not exist. Think ofwhat things would be like if men believed what they say they do!

Today, in a torn and tangled world, Jesus is still an outsider. Until He is taken into the home, into the church, and into our very selves, there can be no peace on earth.

(advertisement)

NEW LIFE at the OLD STAND

We're restocked and ready for a

Big Weekend Ahead

Come and See Us

The Station Stand

Larry Colbert and Joe Meisel III

FRENCH YOUTH

One of a group of five French young people is arriving here to be the August guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Grundmann. The youth has come to this country under the auspices of The Experiment in International Living.

The Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic lunched here Tuesday.

Mrs. Archa Trabue entertained 20 member ladies of the Alton Zonta Club with a banquet at the Kentucky Home and a meeting at her cottage Thursday.

ECHOE NEEDS DONATIONS

Wednesday, Mrs. Henry Thomas of Grafton entertained 12 Chautauqua women, and Mrs. Arthur Maier entertained 15 women of her St. Louis church at Kentucky Home with a luncheon.

(Advertisement)

KING GIFT SHOP

Have you seen the Christmas display and ordered you Christmas Cards?

Dr. and Mrs. Sy Hotze are expecting Mrs. Hotze's parents, Mr. & Mrs. Wm Linde, and her aunt Miss Clara Linde from St. Louis for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. William Osborn entertained the Board of Deacons of the First Presbyterian Church of Alton and their wives Monday at a potluck supper.

Scott and Matt, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Adams of Alton visited this week with their grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Jr. R. Adams of Alton.

Alton Laundry Co.